

- 1) The user has to be exclusive and have a login to be able to access the activities and bills related to the account.
- 2) The user should be able to have at least 10 activities simultaneously. Each activity should be able to support at least 10 bills simultaneously. Each activity should support at least 5 users.
- 3) The user should be able to add existing users to the activities. The users added to the activity should be able to see all the bills related to the activity, add new ones, but just modify bills that they added.
- 4) The program should inform the balance of each user in the activity and how much each user owes each other.

*The application does not offer a payment option. The form of payment should be agreed upon by the users and the software has no responsibility for payment topics.